Rafizi and Nor Azmie join Yayasan Peneraju board of trustees

KUALA LUMPUR: Economy Minister Rafizi Ramli and the ministry's secretary-general Datuk Nor Azmie Diron have been named to the board of trustees of Yayasan Peneraju Pendidikan Bumiputera, effective March 27.

Prior to his current position, Nor Azmie had served as director-general of the Economic Planning Unit (EPU).

Yayasan Peneraju's board of trustees are all elected on a pro bono basis.

Yayasan Peneraju chief executive officer Dr Mohammad Muzamil Ismail said as a data-driven organisation, the agency would strive to design and offer industry-driven programmes to amplify youths' employability.

It has successfully trained and reskilled more than 57,000 individuals from the Bottom 40, Middle 40, rural, and the underserved groups through more than 440 programmes over the years.

This has enabled them to contribute to the nation's economic development.

The foundation also expressed its appreciation to the previous board of trustees for their advice and contributions during their tenure.
