PM: A one-off RM100 e-tunai to be credited to adults earning an annual income of RM100,000 and below [NSTTV]

KUALA LUMPUR: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim today said the government has agreed to distribute RM100 in e-Tunai credit to all adults in the country earning RM100,000 and below annually.

Anwar, who is also the Finance Minister, said the aid costing the government RM1 billion, is expected to benefit 10 million people in the B40 and M40 income category.

He made the announcement at the launching of the "Madani Economy: Empowering the People" blueprint on the country's economic direction here today
