KERATAN AKHBAR

TARIKH : 30 JULAI 2024

AKHBAR : NEW STRAITS TIMES MUKA SURAT : 5 – BUSINESS TIMES

Rafizi: Malaysia has potential to reclaim Asian Tiger status

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Rafizi: Malaysia has potential to reclaim Asian Tiger status

PUTRAJAYA: Malaysia has the potential to regain its status as an Asian Tiger due to its strength as the potential for expansion in the electronices and chip industries, and Economy Minister Rafizi Helphanis (and the economy.

Tour initiatives to support Hesaid this hinged on the country's ability to thrive in future economic sectors, particularly sustainable energy, rather than theying on gross domestic product measurements.

Hesaid Malaysia's achievement

Initiatives to support the economy.

Tour initiatives to support the economic sectors, particularly sustainable energy, rather than theying on gross domestic product measurements.

Hesaid Malaysia's achievement

Initiatives to support the economy.

Tour initiatives to support the economic sectors, particularly and commance of artificial intelligence and chip frequency the first economic sectors.

Tour initiatives to support the economic sectors, particularly and global and coloniance of artificial intelligence and chip frequency the formation of the future conomic of the future conomy.

The said at the launch of Economic Census 2023 findings yesterday.

The future conomy.

The future conomy.

The future assuments the grounded in the future conomy.

The future assuments the grounded in the future conomy.

The future assuments the grounded in the future conomy.

The future assuments the grounded in the future conomy.

The future assuments the future conomy.

The future assuments the future conomy.

The future assuments the grounded in the future conomy.

The future assuments the

UNIT KOMUNIKASI KORPORAT KEMENTERIAN EKONOMI